Code Of Conduct For Colts
February 2006

Ickenham Cricket Club believes all people participating in cricket or any activities of the ICC should adhere to a number of Codes of Conduct. All Colts registered as members of ICC are required to sign up to and adhere to the following Code of Conduct.

- Play cricket because you want to do so, not to please your parents and coaches.
- Be attentive at all training and coaching sessions at all times.
- Always wear the appropriate protective equipment.
- Enjoy cricket - fun and enjoyment are essential to skill development.
- Recognise good play not only from your own team but also the opposition.
- Display good sportsmanship – win or lose.
- Learn and play to the laws of the game.
- Accept all umpires decisions without dispute or comment.
- Remember cricket is not an individual sport it is a team game.
- Treat all players as you would like to be treated yourself.
- Verbal or physical abuse are totally unacceptable.
- Appreciate the efforts of coaches, team managers and parents.
- Respect coaches and team manager's decisions.
- Recognise that all young players have the right to participate in a safe and friendly environment.
- Understand you have the right to report any incident or occurrence that you feel uncomfortable about, to either an adult or club official.

Failure to agree to comply with the club's colt player's code of conduct may result in membership of the club being terminated.
