

Safeguarding Young People at Ickenham Cricket Club

E Safety

Ickenham Cricket Club recognises the increased use of technology and it's potential impact on safeguarding young people.

All club officers, members, appointed volunteers and guests of this club will:-

- Take responsibility for their own use of communication and interactive technologies, making sure they use new technologies safely, responsibly and legally within the context of young people at Ickenham Cricket Club.*
- Not use communication devices or services, including interactive services such as social networking, for inappropriate behaviour online or compromise the safety of young people at Ickenham Cricket Club. For the avoidance of doubt this includes bullying or harassment in any form, defamation, obscene or abusive language and the uploading of material which is libellous, defamatory, obscene, illegal, shows nudity or is violent.*
- Report any known misuses of communication and / or interactive technologies within the context of young people at Ickenham Cricket Club, including unacceptable behaviour, inappropriate contact with children online and illegal content, including sexual abuse/indecent images of children and / or adults, according to the relevant club and ECB safeguarding policies and procedures.*
- Need to be aware that any report of the misuse of communication and / or interactive technologies within the context of young people at Ickenham Cricket Club will be investigated according to the club's policy and procedures and may result in sanctions being enforced. Depending upon the seriousness of any incident, legal action may be taken and where suspected criminal activity has taken place a report will be made to the police.*

In addition, and in respect of young people at Ickenham Cricket Club, officers and appointed volunteers will:-

The logo for Ickenham Cricket Club features a stylized cricket ball with a bat and a stumps icon, positioned to the left of the club's name.
